Legislature

Republican

Glen E. Brown

The four counties that make up this Legislative District include Summit, Wasatch, Morgan, and Rich. The citizens who live in the District are among the finest in the State of Utah. In addition, they represent a broad spectrum of values and vocations. I feel that I have a real good und:rstanding of the needs and interests of this district and will be able to be a strong voice for our District at the legislature.

During the past two years, I have been working hard to meet the

Continued on Page 8A

Democrat

Jean Stauffer

The issues of the 1990's will he access to health care, education, quality of life, water, environment, economic development and tax structure.

Our current legislature has not adequately dealt with these issues and does not represent the interests and viewpoints of thel people of District #54.

We have an education crisis. I support the Democratic platform calling for more resoruces for education, paid for by tax restructuring.

Continued on Page 8A

Republican

Alarik Myrin

It has been an honor to serve as Senator for the past four years, representing Daggett, Uintah, Duchesne, and Wasatch Counties, half of Summit County and part of Carbon County. I am looking forward to working with the people and representing them in the Senate for the next term.

Wave 31 Oct 1990

GEORGE A. FISHER

George A. Fisher was born July 4, 1883, at Park City, son of David and Mary Ann

McDonald Fisher. He married Annie McMillan in Heber in [illegible].

Graduate of the LDS Business College, where he served as [illegible] editor of the school paper, [illegible] and Blue, [illegible] several years [illegible] editor of the Wasatch Wa[illegible] weekly publication. He served as the [illegible] U. S. forest ranger in Wasatch and [illegible] Counties, from 1906 to 1916. He was a member of the Utah Legislature [illegible] Wasatch County in 1917.

George was the organizer and first president of the Heber H[illegible] and Cattle Growers' Assn. member of the Wasatch County school board, past president of the Association of Western Public Land States, executive secretary of the Utah land board, chairman of the W[illegible] County Chapter American Red Cross from 1917 to 1933. He was an [illegible] writer of several published books [illegible] prose and poetry. Mr. Fisher en[illegible] sheep and cattle raising, [illegible] contracting, motel and store business. He was the founder of the town of Keetley, Wasatch County, in 1922, where he made his home until his death, July 17, 1954.

Poet

GEORGE A. FISHER

George A. Fisher was born July 4, 1883, at Park City, son of David and Mary Ann

McDonald Fisher. He married Annie McMillan in Heber in [illegible].

Graduate of the LDS Business College, where he served as [illegible] editor of the school paper. [illegible] and Blu[illegible] for several years [illegible] editor of the Wasatch Wa[illegible] publication. He served as [illegible] U. S. forest ranger in Wasatch and Duchesne Counties, from 1906 to 1916. He was a member of the Utah Legislature [illegible] Wasatch County in 1917.

George was the organizer and first president of the Heber Horse and Cattle Growers' Assn., member of the Wasatch County school board, past president of the Association of Western Public Land States, executive secretary of the Utah land board, chairman of the Wasatch County Chapter American Red Cross from 1917 to 1933. He was an accomplished writer of several published books [illegible] and poems. Mr. Fisher en[illegible] cattle raising, [illegible] motel and store business. He was the founder of the town of Keetley, Wasatch County, in 1922, where he made his home until his death, July 17, 1954.

Writer
Poet